

COLLEEN RUDIO

SENIOR MANAGEMENT & EXIT PLANNING CONSULTANT
CO-FOUNDER, CEO, CEPA

OVERVIEW

Colleen serves as a visionary architect, meticulously reviewing, designing, and facilitating the development of plans that extend far beyond immediate goals. Her focus lies in ensuring long-term sustainability and adaptability, embracing a philosophy of continuous improvement and innovation. Having navigated interim C-level and executive leadership positions in both private and public sectors, at local, state, and international levels, Colleen brings a wealth of practical knowledge to any project.

Colleen focuses her expertise with clients in the areas of Exit Planning, interim CEO/ED and CSO roles, strategic growth planning, Restructures and Turnarounds, and non-profit and association leadership.

Colleen's experience in economic, organizational, and community capacity development, emerges as a driving force in strategy, execution and organizational sustainability. With over 30 years of expertise spanning various industries and organizational sizes, her Butte roots have instilled an unyielding work ethic and a profound dedication to the state of Montana.

TTI ASSESSMENT

Colleen's TTI assessment reveals her to be a innovator with a natural ability to persuade others to engage with her. Bringing a powerful blend of drive and influence, Colleen is instrumental in propelling projects forward and engaging stakeholders. On a team, she is the go-to for initiating bold strategies, driving decisive progress, and generating enthusiasm for new directions. She cares deeply for community and teams, and her passion for helping organizations thrive is evident to everyone she meets.

Learn more about
TTI Assessments.

UNIQUE ABILITIES

A highly driven and decisive leader, Colleen is known for her ability to cut through complexity and deliver impactful results. She thrives on challenge and consistently drives initiatives forward with a clear vision and unwavering focus. She excels at developing winning strategies and fostering critical collaboration, ensuring engagement across teams to drive initiatives forward with a clear vision and unwavering focus. With her infectious energy and generous spirit, Colleen is a masterful leader, mentor, and speaker.

CONTACT

 LinkedIn Profile

 cascdiamg.com

 colleen@cascdiamg.com

SKILL PROFILE

Exit and Succession Planning
Turnarounds and Restructures
Executive Interim / Fractional Mgmt
Corporate & Non-Profit Governance
Master and Strategic Planning
Operations & Process Improvement
Stakeholder Facilitation and Engagement
Communications & Change Mgmt

CERTIFICATIONS

-  Certified Exit Planning Advisor (EPI)
-  Lean & Project Management (PMI)
-  TTI Assessment Certification
-  John Maxwell Leadership Certification

COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP

-  Montana Ambassadors
(Treasurer, Ambassador of the Year)
-  Better Business Bureau serving Great
West & Pacific (Regional Board & Intenational Council Leadership)
-  Community Leadership Roles in
Multiple Lending, Econonmic
Development, Chamber, Commerce,
Philanthropic, Health & Human Services, Main Street, Youth, Senior,
Disabled, Tourism, and International
Orgnaizations