OVERVIEW

Paige is a seasoned Human Resource Consultant with a passion for helping organizations build high-performing, people centric workplaces. With over 15 years of experience across diverse industries, Paige brings expertise in strategic workforce planning, talent acquisition, organizational development, and compliance management.

Known for a hands-on, solutions-oriented approach, Paige partners with leadership teams to design HR strategies that align with business goals, foster positive workplace culture, and drive employee engagement. Whether advising on HR policy development, leading performance management initiatives, or supporting change management efforts, she delivers practical guidance grounded in both best practice and business realities.

Paige holds a PHR certification and is deeply committed to staying current with evolving labor laws, HR technologies, and trends in workforce dynamics. She serves as a trusted advisor during times of growth, restructuring or transition. Her specialties include HR leadership training, HR infrastructure development and support, employee relations, talent acquisition, compliance and culture building.

TTI ASSESSMENT

Paige's TTI assessment reveals her to be sociable and enjoy the uniqueness of each human being. She is approachable and understanding, positive and funny. Paige can combine and balance enthusiasm and patience. She is good at giving verbal and nonverbal feedback that serves to encourage people to be open, to trust her, and to see her as receptive and helpful. Paige can negotiating conflict with poise and diplomacy, and is a great listener.
